Sonia Falcone at Pinta Art Fair 2012

Following the tremendous success of "Windows of the Soul" exhibition around the world, Sonia Falcone continues her amazing journey. As a bright star of Contemporary Art, this exciting Bolivian Latin American Artist has opened new avenues with her art, keeping her viewers mesmerized with her unique creations. Her beginnings were more Pigurative, soon she decided to move to a more abstract form. The spiritual theme is a central element in her work. Her spiritual ideal can be found in all structures, cosmic or individual, organic or inorganic, but achieves its full expression in the human form, shown in her monumental multicolored pieces. Sangre - Contemporary Dance meets the Fire of Flamenco

Sangre is a stunning and visually explosive show where the beauty and movement of contemporary dance meets the fire of flamenco. A compelling story told through dance, voice and live music - one woman's experience of life and love, passion, choice, freedom and hope. Karen is faced with the toughest decision of her life to return to the man she loves or embrace her new- found freedom and embark upon a different path? Each male dance represents different character aspects of the one man, Karen's lover. We visit her emotional world as she searches for the answer. Sangre is a universal story on the quest for fulfillment and inner peace. Read further.

Jamaican Men - A Collector's Choice at the Europe House

Jamaica, internationally known for its music, and, nowadays, for the prowess of its athletes. There are other things it should be known for as well, its visual artists. It has a large number of painters and sculptors, working in a wide variety of styles. Theresa Roberts, an enthusiastic collector and patron of Jamaican contemporary art, has made an Internet gallery in order to share what her compatriots are doing, and in the hope of making an important aspect of Jamaican culture better known. People who do know Jamaica will recognize the way in which these works of art convey some of the unique flavor of this vibrant Caribbean nation. Read further.

Masterpiece 2012 London - Art Antiques Design

Masterpiece London was launched in June 2010 to global acclaim and was held at the former Chelsea Barracks. 118 exhibitors participated in the first fair and there were over 18,000 visitors to the inaugural event. Masterpiece London 2011 was equally spectacular and saw the fair move to its permanent home on the South Grounds of the Royal Hospital Chelsea. Over 28,000 visitors came through its doors over the 8 days of the fair. Notable visitors included HRH Prince Harry, Sir Elton John, Oprah Winfrey, Anish Kapoor, and Tom Ford. 152 of the world's leading dealers participated at the 2011 event. Read further.

Restaurant Review - Pret a Diner

International dining experience Prêt à Diner is back in the capital from 9 May-30 June with a series of dinners called 'Italians Do It Better'. Top London chefs including Giorgio Locatelli will join forces with their Michelin-starred Italian counterparts – including Accursio Craparo (from La Gazza Ladra), Cristian and Manuel Costardi (of Hotel Cinzia), Norbert Niederkofler (of the Rosa Alpina hotel) and Viviana Varese (from Alice restaurant) – to create menus that will allow guests to compare modern and traditional Italian cuisines.The evening will start with cutting-edge cocktails from the bar area, manned by the folks from Islington drinking den 69 Colebrooke Row. These will be followed by a parade of dishes, including fresh and innovative takes on Italian food, as well as traditional classics. The event will take place at Grade II-listed Mayfair building 50 St James's Street; the space will also boast a pop-up art gallery, a bar, and a boutique. Read further...
