The Fabergé Big Egg Hunt Banquet

On March 20th, members are invited to the Royal Court of Justice for Dinner and Auction. The Big Egg Hunt presented by Fabergé will see over 200 beautifully painted and decorated egg sculptures placed all over central London from 21st February until the Easter weekend. All the two and a half foot eggs will be hidden around 12 Egg Zones, encouraging all of London to participate in what is set to break the Guinness World Record for the most people participating in an Egg Hunt! Castello di Vicarello - Boutique Luxury Castle Hotel

Xquisitus new luxury boutique hotel partner. This castle is exactly where Rapunzel should be letting down her hair. It's amazing - unusual and full of character. The rooms are enormous, with open fires and wonderful Balinese beds that you have to climb up to get into. The owners make their own soap, on slats that are left out in the sun to dry, and their own delicious wine. There are two swimming pools facing out across the hills, one next to a vegetable garden, bordered by rosemary and lavender, and another made out of big slabs of natural stone, behind which there's a new spa. Restaurant Review: Novikov

Having stamped his mark on Moscow & beyond, Russian restaurant guru Arkady Novikov has staked a claim in London with the launch of two gastronomically distinct eateries under one roof on swish Berkeley Street. On-the-ball staff with bags of character make a big contribution in the Asian-themed restaurant, which delivers tip-top renditions of well-tried, big-city dishes: think lobster tempura, fine dim sum, 'great black cod', chicken yakitori, spanking fresh sashimi & some surprisingly good puddings. Otherwise, make a detour to the Italian Room, which is headed up by chef Stefano Secca (formerly at Rosmarino & the short-lived Osteria Secca): to eat, expect the likes of risotto with clams, fennel, lemon zest & parsley, as well as wood-roasted, 21-day-aged T-bone steak with globe artichoke & roast potato. Novikov's standalone lounge bar adds further possibilities. Read further...
